K Financial Foundation—A Busy Season of Giving

The K Financial Foundation had a busy holiday season spreading good cheer to those who needed an extra hand. The season started with the Thanksgiving Bag Stuffing Extravaganza. Thirty bags were filled with hats, gloves, socks, a variety of food and other essentials to help our homeless friends enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday and keep warm during this cold and snowy season. The K Financial team distributed the bags outside of the St Francis Center in downtown Denver. The bags went quickly and everyone who received them was extremely grateful. One man told Jamie that this was perfect timing because all of his winter clothes were stolen the night before.

Immediately after Thanksgiving, the K Financial Foundation kicked off its annual Adopt-a-Family program. This year the Foundation adopted two families in need through the I Have A Dream Foundation of Boulder County. K Financial team members enjoyed buying the toys, clothes, cold weather gear, shoes and boots the twelve family members asked for on their Christmas wish lists. The Foundation also provided food gift cards, Christmas trees and decorations to help the families have a Merry Christmas.
